Postlude - Doleta Chapru

435-Chalice Lighting

We come together this morning to remind one another To rest for a moment on the forming edge of our lives, To resist the headlong tumble into the next moment, Until we claim for ourselves awareness and gratitude, Taking time to look into one another's faces
And see there communion: the reflection of our own eyes.

This house of laughter and silence, memory and hope is hallowed by our presence together

Kathleen McTigue

457- Closing Words

I am only one
But still I am one,
I cannot do everything,
But still I can do something.
And because I cannot do everything I will not refuse to do the something that I can do

Edward Everett Hale
