Announcements

Earth Charter: At the fall parish meeting on Nov. 16 the Social Action Committee will recommend that the congregation join the General Assembly of the UUA and other UU groups in endorsing the Earth Charter. If you have not seen the Earth Charter, ask Bob Park for a copy of the brochure containing it or visit <http://www.earthcharter.org/>.

Musicians Mastering Mozart: Musicians of most all ages are mightily encouraged to make plans to sing or play Mozart music for the December 14 program. If you need an accompanist or accompanists, or need material in the milieu of music, make mention of it to Warren Hagstrom or Doleta Chapru. And 'member, make merry!

Teachers Needed: The Religious Education (RE) program still needs teachers to sign up. If you can't teach, please let Anne Urbanski know how else you might be able to volunteer this year, such as bringing snacks, calling, providing rides, cleanup, or supplies.

Calling All Singles (Gloves and Mittens): Bring in orphan knit gloves or mittens for a Religious Education project. Put them in the box upstairs or hand them over to an R.E. person.

Prairie Fire Deadline for next issue is today. Give copy to Dan Proud, call (661-0776) or send an e-mail to prairieu@execpc.com.
