Prelude - Lydia, the Tattooed Lady

(as sung by Groucho Marx in At the Circus) -

Music by Harold Arlen

Welcome

Opening Words

"An artist is essentially a person in search of beauty. He cannot abide ugliness either in a bad song, a bad script, or a bad society. He is always willing to reconstruct, even if the structure is the social system. He is always the rebel – the fellow who evolves and re-evolves"

(Harburg on FDR's New Deal, Kern College, October 1973)

Chalice Lighting - "Back to the Drawing Board"

Silent Meditation

*Congregational Song - Ain't It the Truth

(Musical: Jamaica, music by Harold Arlen)

Presentation - "Yip Harburg: Lyricist/Poet/Activist"

Presented by Susan Hagstrom

Brother, Can You Spare a Dime? - Andy Somers
