Announcements

The Humanist Union will meet today starting at 11:45 with a potluck. The speaker will be Eric Snyder, who will talk about the book 1000 Lashes: Because I Say What I Think by Raif Badawi.

Prairie runs on love and volunteer time – but it also needs your financial support to bring quality programs every Sunday, support our staff, and maintain our building. Pledges are the primary way that this financial support comes in. You'll be receiving a letter and pledge form from the Finance Committee in the coming week. It would be very helpful if you could return the pledge form on or before October 9. Thank you for your commitment to Prairie.

Please mark your calendars and save the date for Prairie's first-ever Flash Flea Market on October 24. "Flash" because it's one-day-only event, and flea market because this will not be a garage sale - it will be a flea-market-style event, with individual "vendors" at their own stations. Prairie members and attendees and their family members can be vendors, and we'll include our R.E. kids as well in several ways.

Sign up for Circle Dinners which will be starting again soon. Not sure what a Circle Dinner is? Ask Rick Ruecking or Dan Proud.

The next Prairie Orientation will be held on Nov. 14 in the Annex.

Check your entry for the next edition of the Prairie Directory! Draft copies are in the foyer.

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.
