We will also open the floor to comments about the current holiday season. Program title: FFRF Convention Review/Holiday Discussion. Prairie Elders meets in the Annex at 1:30 on December 22. This month we will be discussing the following. How do those with non-Christian, atheist or humanist beliefs feel at this time of year. Are your buttons being pushed? If you are over 65, or there abouts, please join the Elders three days before Christmas for a stimulating social time and discussion. For more information, contact Al Nettleton or Penny Eiler. The first meeting in the new year will be January 26.

Prairie Men's Group meets tonight at 5:30pm to discuss past services. Please bring a dish to pass if convenient.

The Book Club will meet December 27 after the service to discuss Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End by Atul Gawande (non-fiction, 282 pages) (recommended by Pam Gates and Mary Frantz) His book is a personal meditation on how we can better live with age-related frailty, serious illness and approaching death. (New York Times Sunday Book Review)

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.
