2nd Quarter Offertory Sharing: Nehemiah Center for Urban Leadership Development

For the second quarter of 2023, Prairie is sharing its offertory collection with the Nehemiah Center for Urban Leadership Development, which provides peer support to men returning to the community from prison through its Reentry and Dignity Housing programs. Nehemiah also mentors kids who need help navigating school and life and offers an acclaimed course for the general public, "Black History for a New Day."

Service: Sunday, June 25, 10:00 am "Trust Pregnant People" by Johanna Hatch

In this presentation, we will review the rights and restrictions of pregnant people in Wisconsin both before and after the Dobbs vs Jackson Women's Health decision which recriminalized abortion in Wisconsin approximately one year ago.

Service: Sunday, July 2, 10:00 am "Moving On" by Rev. Matt Aspin

My time as a minister at Prairie is done. Where will we all go from here?

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.

Lyrics to "Come, Read a Book With Me"

Come read a book with me
Come read a book with me
Come read a book with me
That I might know your mind.

And I'll bring you hope, when hope is hard to find
And I'll bring a book of love
And a rose in the winter time.

Come read a poem to me
Come read a poem to me
Come read a poem to me
That I might know your mind.

And I'll bring you hope, when hope is hard to find
And I'll bring a book of poems
And a rose in the winter time.

Come share a quote with me
Come share a quote with me
Come share a quote with me
That I might know your mind.

And I'll bring you hope, when hope is hard to find
And I'll bring lots of quotes
And a rose in the winter time.
