Let there be joy in our coming together this morning.

Let there be help and healing for our disharmony and despair.

Let there be silence for the voice within us and beyond us.

Let there be joy in our coming together.

Go in love, go in love.

2nd Quarter Offertory Sharing: Nehemiah Center for Urban Leadership Development

For the second quarter of 2023, Prairie is sharing its offertory collection with the Nehemiah Center for Urban Leadership Development, which provides peer support to men returning to the community from prison through its Reentry and Dignity Housing programs. Nehemiah also mentors kids who need help navigating school and life and offers an acclaimed course for the general public, "Black History for a New Day."

Service: Sunday, July 2, 10:00 am "Moving On" by Rev. Matt Aspin

My time as a minister at Prairie is done. Where will we all go from here?

This is Rev. Matt's last presentation at Prairie. Please join us after the service for a reception. Come enjoy dessert and a chance to say goodbye to our minister. We'll have a basket in the lobby to collect cards and letters. Please note the reception is in lieu of our regular Soup Sunday this month.

If you can't attend in person, you may mail any messages for Rev. Matt to Prairie and our Admin will forward them. Mail to: Prairie UU Society, 2006 Whenona Dr, Madison, WI 53711

Prairie UU Society Bond of Union

We, the members of Prairie, wish to associate ourselves together in a religious community which affirms that we share a common humanity, that we need one another, and that our futures are inescapably bound together. Together we would expand our intellectual horizons, enrich our sensory experiences, and deepen our emotional sensitivities. We would sharpen our ethical awareness and broaden our sense of social responsibility. We would stand tall in our quest for integrity of life, yet not at others' expense. As the prairie stretches out until it becomes one with the sky, let us reach out to touch and be one with the natural world, and with one another.
