Chalice Lighting adapted from Matthew ch. 25

I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was unclothed and you clothed me,
I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me,
I know that I am worthy, I know that I am welcome.

Lyrics for "If I Knew You Were Coming' I'd've Baked a Cake", you're invited to sing along:

Well, well, well. Look who's here.
I haven't seen you in many a year.

(Chorus shown below)

If I knew you were comin' I'd've baked a cake, baked a cake, baked a cake
If I knew you were comin' I'd've baked a cake
Howdya do, howdya do, howdya do?

Had you dropped me a letter, I'd a-hired a band, grandest band in the land
Had you dropped me a letter, I'd a-hired a band
And spread the welcome mat for you

Now, I don't know where you came from
'cause I don't know where you've been
But it really doesn't matter
Grab a chair and fill your platter
And dig, dig, dig right in

If I knew you were comin' I'd've baked a cake, hired a band, goodness sake!
If I knew you were comin' I'd've baked a cake
Howdya do, howdya do, howdya do?

(Chorus)

Had you dropped me a letter, I'd've hired a hall, great big hall band and all
Had you dropped me a letter, I'd've hired a hall
and Spread the welcome mat for you

Now, I don't know where you came from
'cause I don't know where you've been
But it really doesn't matter
Grab a chair and fill your platter
And dig, dig, dig right in

If I knew you were comin' I'd've kept the pot, coffee pot, nice and hot
If I knew you were comin' I'd've baked a cake
Howdya do, howdya do, howdya do?

Next Sunday "Raging Grannies" by Barb Park, Karen Deaton, and the Raging Grannies

The Raging Grannies are a group of "women of a certain age," who use humor, song, and touches of street theater to protest injustice in all its many forms and advocate for peace and equality. Come learn a little about the Grannies and hear them sing! We'll have a potluck after the service.

Next Sunday in RE: Cook & Learn: our young people will learn about the Muslim holidays Ramadan and Eid-al-Fitr, and prepare food to share at our congregation's potluck. If you are Muslim or you have spent time in a majority-Muslim culture or if you have Muslim friends who might be willing to share their experiences with these holidays, please contact Karen (dre@uuprairie.org)
